

INTRODUCTION TO LIBERAL ARTS

INTELLECTUAL RETREAT

Join us from April 12th to April 14th for an immersive experience tailored for curious minds eager to explore the liberal arts.

The weekend is for adults from all across Australia and New Zealand who would like to participate in intellectual talks on the liberal arts, focusing on theology and literature.

All attendees will have the opportunity to delve into the core principles of the liberal arts through guided readings of timeless literary works, engaging panel discussions led by academics, and intimate small-group workshops. The retreat is crafted as an academic immersion, where participants actively engage with scholarly materials and lively discussions
